California has undoubtedly elected Markham and the Republican Congressional and legislative ticket and also cleaned out the Buckley roosts in San Francisco.

The Orphans' Appeal has been a very lively paper for the first week. Miss McCone and staff deserve to be elected honorary members of the Nevada Press Association.

Mr. Mackey has not yet called at the Holstein ranch for his bull calf, but the animal will be delivered at a moment's notice without alteration from the APPEAL's original design.

You find in the intrepid explorer, Henry M. Stanley, an exact likeness of the Governor-elect of Nevada, R. K. Colcord. He also resembles him in tenacity and firmness of purpose.

Judging from the votes already cast, it is pretty certain that the entire Republican county ticket will be elected except Mr. Cook for Justice of the Peace of Virginia and possibly Richard Jennings for Recorder.—Enterprise.

The Eastern elections show a decided Democratic gain of Congress, and the next Congress will be Democratic by considerable of a majority. The Farmers Alliance seem to have taken a large winning hand in the contest.

There has been a great campaign in McKinley's gerrymandered district, and the contest there is one of the most interesting in the United States. McKinley has not drawn upon the Republican Campaign Committee for a dollar to aid his canvass. His funds have been supplied to him directly by the Republican manufacturers of the country, who are not only anxious for his re-election but are grateful for what he has done for them in Congress.

Mrs. Southworth's Funeral.

Mrs. Southworth, whose sad death so shocked the community, was buried yesterday from the Episcopal church.

The edifice was filled with mourners to pay their last tribute of respect. The coffin was covered with floral offerings, and over it a very touching discourse was preached by J. Fred Holmes.

The Episcopal choir, consisting of Mrs. D. A. Bender, Miss Vallie French, J. D. Torreyson and Harry Cobb, rendered the Burial Anthem and other appropriate music.

The following were the pall bearers: Professor H. H. Howe, George McLoughlin, M. A. Kennedy, Barney McClure, Geo. Cagwin and Leslie Bell. A long line of carriages followed the remains to the grave. Mrs. Dr. S. Southworth, of Sacramento, a sister-in-law of the deceased, came from Sacramento to attend the funeral.

The Brigands.

There was a large audience last evening to witness the return of the Carleton Company. Not the least of the attraction was the sweet voice and the pretty legs of Jenny Winston, who is as captivating as ever to the audience.
The leading singers of the troop have superb voices, and Carleton is still a favorite. The Opera was remarkably well rendered and the chorus was magnificent.

WHAT ON EARTH—Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing.—W. H. Chedie Druggist
